

CODE OF CONDUCT
TO REGULATE, MONITOR AND REPORT TRADING IN SECURITIES
OF
MARKSANS PHARMA LIMITED

1. INTRODUCTION

Trading in a Company's securities by insiders who enjoy a special status, when compared with the general investors, as regards price sensitive information, and who, as a result thereof are able to use their special status for individual benefit, is commonly referred to as Insider Trading.

The Securities and Exchange Board of India ("SEBI") has notified the SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 (hereinafter referred to as "Regulations") dealing, inter alia, with buying, selling or otherwise dealing in securities of companies by Insiders. These Regulations mandates every listed company to frame and implement a Code of Conduct to regulate, monitor and report trading in their securities by the directors, officers, employees and their immediate relatives and other insiders, which need to be followed, if these categories hold, purchase, sell or otherwise deal in such Company's securities.

2. OBJECTIVE AND SCOPE OF THE CODE

The Code of Conduct to regulate, monitor and report trading in securities of Marksans Pharma Limited by the insiders (hereinafter referred to as "the Code") is formulated with a view to serve as a guiding charter for all concerned persons associated with the functioning of the Company and their trading in the Company's securities.

Adherence to the Code by the insiders of Marksans Pharma Limited is mandatory. Any violation of this Code and the Regulations will attract action under Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) Act and the Regulations. In case of any difference or disputes between this Code and the Regulations, provisions of the Regulations shall prevail over this Code.

4. CONFIDENTIALITY OF UNPUBLISHED PRICE SENSITIVE INFORMATION

Insiders are required to maintain confidentiality of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information and shall adhere to the following:

- (a) Insiders shall not communicate, provide or allow access to any unpublished price sensitive information, relating to the Company or securities listed or proposed to be listed, to any person except where such communication is in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performances of duties or discharge of legal obligations;
- (b) Insiders shall not procure from or cause the communication by any other insider of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information relating to the Company or securities listed or proposed to be listed, to any person except where such procurement is in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performances of duties or discharge of legal obligations.
- (c) Unpublished Price Sensitive Information is to be handled on a “need to know” basis i.e. the communication of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information shall be only to those insiders who will need the same for discharge of their duties.
- (d) Unpublished Price Sensitive Information shall not be communicated in a situation in which there would be an uncertainty as regards a conflict of interest or a possibility of the misuse of information.
- (e) If any Unpublished Price Sensitive Information is inadvertently received by any insider, the same shall be immediately reported, in writing, to the Compliance Officer.
- (f) Files containing Unpublished Price Sensitive Information and other confidential information shall be kept secure. Computer files must have adequate security of login, passwords, etc.

5. NEED TO KNOW

To prevent any misuse of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information those areas of the Company which have access to or is reasonably be expected to have access to Unpublished Price Sensitive Information such as the Finance and Accounts, Legal, Secretarial , MD’s Office, be considered as “Inside Areas” shall be separated from those areas which deal with Customer, Market Operations, Human Resource and such other departments shall be considered as “Public Areas”.

As per the above policy:

- The employees in the inside areas are not permitted to communicate any unpublished price sensitive information to anyone in the public areas.

- The employees in Inside Areas may be physically separated from the employees in Public Area.
- The Compliance officer in consultation with the Board/MD/CEO shall demarcate different departments as Inside and Public Areas.
- In exceptional circumstances employees from the Public Area may be allowed to “cross the wall” and may be given unpublished price sensitive information but only on “need-to-know basis” in order to discharge their official duties and not in any other case.

6. TRADING RESTRICTIONS

- (a) No insider shall trade in securities of the Company when in possession of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information even when the trading window is open except under a “trading plan” set up in accordance with clause 7 of the Code.
- (b) Designated Persons and their immediate relatives shall not trade in securities of the Company when the trading window is closed.
- (c) Designated Persons and their immediate relatives are allowed to trade in the securities of the Company only when the trading window is open. However, trading in securities of the Company by the Designated Persons and their immediate relatives, even when the trading window is open shall be subject to pre-clearance by the Compliance Officer if the value of the proposed trade whether in one transaction or in a series of transactions over any calendar quarter will aggregate in excess of Rs. 10 (Ten) Lakh. However, no pre-clearance application shall be approved if the Designated Persons and their immediate relatives are in possession of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information even if the trading window is open.
- (d) Once a proposed trade is pre-cleared, the trade must be executed within 7 days of such pre-clearance failing which fresh pre-clearance will be required.
- (e) Once a trade is executed by a designated person (i.e. buy or sell any number of securities irrespective of value of such trade), he/she shall not execute a contra trade (opposite trade i.e. sell or buy any number of securities) within six months from the date of execution of such prior trade. In case of multiple buy or sale transactions on different dates, restriction of six months on sale or buy would apply from the date of the last buy or sale and not the first one. In case a contra trade is executed, inadvertently or otherwise, in violation of such a restriction, the profits from such trade shall be liable to be remitted for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund administered by SEBI.
- (f) No pre-clearance shall be provided to a trade if the same is in nature of contra trades within six months of the last executed trade.

7. TRADING PLAN:

- (1) An insider shall be entitled to formulate a Trading Plan and present it to the Compliance Officer for approval and public disclosure pursuant to which trades may be carried out on his behalf in accordance with such plan.

- (2) Trading Plan shall:
- (i) not entail commencement of trading on behalf of the insider earlier than six months from the public disclosure of the plan;
 - (ii) not entail trading for the period between the twentieth trading day prior to the last day of any financial period for which results are required to be announced by the Company and the second trading day after the disclosure of such financial results;
 - (iii) entail trading for a period of not less than twelve months;
 - (iv) not entail overlap of any period for which another trading plan is already in existence;
 - (v) set out either the value of trades to be effected or the number of securities to be traded along with the nature of the trade (i.e. acquisition or disposal) and the intervals at, or dates on which such trades shall be effected; and
 - (vi) not entail trading in securities for market abuse.
- (3) The Compliance Officer shall review the Trading Plan made as above to assess whether the plan would have any potential for violation of the Code and shall be entitled to seek such express undertakings as may be necessary to enable such assessment and to approve and monitor the implementation of the plan in accordance with the Code.
- (4) The Trading Plan once approved shall be irrevocable and the insider shall mandatorily have to implement the plan, without being entitled to either deviate from it or to execute any trade in the securities outside the scope of the Trading Plan.

However, the implementation of the Trading Plan shall not be commenced, if at the time of formulation of the plan, the insider is in possession of any unpublished price sensitive information and the said information has not become generally available at the time of the commencement of implementation. In such event the Compliance Officer shall confirm that the commencement of the Plan ought to be deferred until such unpublished price sensitive information becomes generally available information. Further, the insider shall also not be allowed to deal in securities of the Company, if the date of trading in securities of the Company, as per the approved Trading Plan, coincides with the date of closure of Trading Window announced by the Compliance Officer.

- (5) Upon approval of the trading plan, the Compliance Officer shall notify the plan to the stock exchanges on which the securities are listed.

8. TRADING WINDOW

Trading Window will remain open if it is not closed under this Code. The trading window will remain closed for the period commencing from the date on which intimation is given by the Company to the Stock Exchanges of the date on which the Board Meeting is to be held for consideration / approval of the items mentioned above in Clause 3i subject to a minimum period of seven days and will end 48 hours after the above information becomes generally available.
